PROCEDURES FOR SHAREHOLDERS TO NOMINATE
A PERSON FOR ELECTION AS A DIRECTOR

(Adopted on 14 September 2016)

Article 90 of the articles of association of the Company provides that the Company may from time to time in general meeting by ordinary resolution elect any person to be a Director either to fill a casual vacancy or as an addition to the Board; no person, other than a retiring Director or a person recommended by the Board, shall be eligible for election to the office of Director at any general meeting, unless notice in writing from a shareholder of his intention to propose that person for election as a Director and notice in writing by that person of his willingness to be elected as a Director shall have been lodged with the registered office of the Company; unless otherwise determined by the Directors and notified by the Company to the Shareholders, the period for lodgement of the notices referred to in paragraph (2) of this Article shall commence on a day after the dispatch of the notice of the meeting designated for such election of Director(s). If the Directors should so determine and notify the members of a different period for lodgement of the said notice referred to in paragraph (2) of this Article, such period shall in any event be a period of not less than seven days, commencing no earlier than the day after the dispatch of the said notice of the meeting and ending no later than seven days prior to the date of such meeting.

Accordingly, if a shareholder wishes to nominate a person to stand for election as a director of the Company at the general meeting, the following documents must be validly served at the registered office of the Company, namely (1) his/her notice of intention to propose a resolution at the general meeting; (2) a notice signed by the nominated candidate of his/her willingness to be elected; (3) the nominated candidate’s information as required to be disclosed under Rule 13.51(2) of the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited; and (4) the nominated candidate’s written consent to the publication of his/her personal data.
